LECTURE:

DANIEL ELLSBERG

END DATE:

October 25, 2002

Daniel Ellsberg, the defense analyst who made public the Pentagon Papers and thereby risked life imprisonment trying to stop the Vietnam War, will present the lecture Secrets: Vietnam and the Pentagon Papers on Friday, October 25 at 8 pm in UCSB Lotte Lehmann Concert Hall. It's been thirty years since Ellsberg smuggled the Pentagon Papers out of his office, setting in motion actions that would eventually topple a presidency and end a war. Now he has written Secrets: A Memoir of Vietnam and the Pentagon Papers, the definitive account of how and why he revealed this top-secret history of American involvement in South East Asia. Noted historian Howard Zinn writes that Ellsberg's "trajectory is the stuff of high drama. Secrets offers its readers a profound education in politics and morality – sobering but also inspiring. If our nation could absorb its lessons, we might all face a better future."

Tickets for this lecture by Daniel Ellsberg are $12 for the general public and $8 for UCSB students. They are on sale now and will be sold at the door, if available. For tickets and more information, phone UCSB Arts & Lectures at 893-3535 or visit on line at www.artsandlectures.ucsb.edu
